CHAIRMAN CHAT

CHRIS NOBLE MBE

Welcome to Mark Sawyer together with all his co-directors, Players, Back-room staff and of course the supporters of Dewsbury Rams who have all made the trip from Dewsbury to our temporary home at the Keepmoat Stadium, Doncaster.

Covid-19 has had a tremendous affect on all of us none more so than anyone who has had the misfortune to have contracted the disease and then the suffering after the negative results headaches problems breathing just having the diseases is only the start of the problems.

We are all aware that this season is unfortunately the season that the finances and the set-up of the professional game of Rugby League will base its future on and I sincerely hope that the powers that be in the RFL, our governing body, take into consideration all the problems that the clubs have had to face to get through this season, following the cancellation of last season and do not go down the line of making the top teams stronger at the detriment of the lower teams by making them weaker. In my opinion all clubs should receive the same support both financially and with the support of the RFL.

Having struggled to put teams together for our last three games we won one and lost two. Our coach has had the difficulty of not having all the squad available due to Covid-19 or injury, in fact at our last home game against Oldham Roughyheads, we had to use the dancing girls as 'Ballboys/girls' and the four interchange players as watercarriers, as we had no one left that we could use due to covid. We managed to win that game. The following two games against Batley and London proved just too much for our available players. Our backroom staff, led by Mark Aston are to be congratulated on putting a team out at all.

On a brighter note I can confirm that the building of our new stadium is going ahead at a rate of knots. The bases are in and the steelwork for the stand has been erected. So we are well on our way to reach the completion date and hopefully play our first games at the new stadium in early 2022. Let us keep our fingers crossed for a mild winter so as not to disturb the building dates due to bad weather. I personally cannot wait for next season and to be at our home after the last eight years being nomadic.

TUBBY TALK

MARK ASTON SPEAKS TO MATT YOUNG

Frustration was again the overriding feeling last weekend at London, but with back-to-back home games we have a real chance to put things right and finish the season strongly.

The second-half against London was a real disappointment for me, because we had given ourselves a platform to go on and win in the first 40, but there's no getting away from it, we just didn't compete after the break and we got what we deserved.

We know we've been struggling and in that second-half we essentially reverted to type, made too many individual errors and didn't complete sets – when that sets in there's only going to be one outcome.

Today we welcome Dewsbury and I want to see a reaction, not just this week, but in the remaining weeks of the campaign.

There's going to be a rebuild here during the off season, and I want to see some momentum in the remaining weeks to give us something to take into this period and into the start of next season.

At this time of the season, matches are won by the team that wants it more. It was London last weekend, this week I want it to be us.

You'll have all seen the news this week that Rob Worrincy will be hanging up his boots at the end of the season. Rob has been an absolute champion for me, over a long period of time, and I'd again like to personally congratulate him on a wonderful career.

There are only a few occasions when I re-sign a player after they leave, well I've signed Rob on four separate occasions so that tells you all you need to know. He's the exception to the rule and a special individual.

Everyone at the club wishes him all the best.

"Rob has been an absolute champion for me, over a long period of time, and I'd again like to personally congratulate him on a wonderful career."

We are in the midst of contract talks with many players at the moment and there will be plenty of announcements in the coming weeks regarding arrivals, contract extensions and departures.

There will be a number of players leaving sadly but that's the nature of the beast and part and part of sport.

I'm sure some of those departing will be a shocked and upsetting to some of you but please don't panic - we will have a strong, committed squad taking to the field in Sheffield in 2022!

Fingers crossed we can get a few bodies back today. We missed the likes of Isaac Farrell and Anthony Thackeray last weekend, so hopefully we'll have them back in the squad and pushing for inclusion as we look to end the season on a high.

Thanks again for all the magnificent support.

Enjoy the game.

There is plenty go on at the club now as we near the end of the 2021 campaign.

As Tubby has mentioned during his programme piece there will be several changes to the squad ahead of the 2022 season.

It's always sad to see players go but it happens, and they go with our best wishes and work continues at pace on our 2022 squad, which will be announced in due course.

As you will see, work is progressing on the Olympic Legacy Park too and as Chairman Chris mentioned in today's article, it's great to see the steel now flying up! We will continue to update on a weekly basis so make sure to check out our social channels and the #StadiumSaturdays.

I feel like I'm referencing everyone else articles but turning to David Butler's Foundation piece later in today's programme – please check out details regarding the questionnaire relating to our potential Lottery Heritage Funding Bid. The more responses the better so we appreciate your time in helping fill this in. The bid would be significant for both the club & Foundation and help show the history of Sheffield Eagles and rugby league in the city – an exciting project so please get behind it!

End of Season Awards

Sheffield Eagles End of Season Awards will take place on Sunday 19 September from 6.30pm onwards.

COMMERCIAL MARK HANNIGAN

A warm welcome to everyone I would like to welcome to the players and staff from Dewsbury to The Keepmoat Stadium for today's game.

I would also like to welcome all our guests in the Hospitality Lounge for today's game.

The OLP build continues at pace now with copious amounts of steel now coming out of the ground. This really enables us to get a feel for the size of the stand and, in turn, what we can do with it.

Having been involved with the club for nearly 5 years now, I have seen some highs and lows. This is certainly a huge high and is exciting.

This gives the added benefit of using the build to ramp up our commercial activities for 2022. In my next notes I will tell you who will be on our kits for 2022!

Our Sponsors and club partners have shown immense patience in bearing with us over the last 5 years + whilst we get the stadium going but now is the time to give back.

Joining The Sheffield Eagles as a club partner is more than the brilliant exposure, innovative and eye-catching activations and the range of networking opportunities that lead to business development.

We also want to focus on creating a long-lasting, personable relationships between the club and business. From enjoyable afternoon golf day to business networking events, and of course the games, there is never a dull moment.

Our strategy has always been to place our partners at the forefront of everything we do commercially to ensure maximum brand exposure to our loyal fanbase is achieved.

I mention this alot but it is so important to The Club, I would like to urge everyone to follow us online, and from my perspective, LinkedIn.

We will be using this platform for the Commercial side of the club and interacting with our sponsors. It is a powerful tool that we will be taking full advantage of.

For more information of any of the events or the commercial side of the club, please feel free to drop me a line or email mark.hannigan@sheffieleagles.com

PROUD SPONSOR OF

Summer Camps

The Eagles Foundation's Summer Camps, delivered in partnership with StreetGames as part of their Fit & Fed campaign, came to an end after four successful weeks of hosting 8 to 14 year olds at Parson Cross Park Pavilion.

Each day's camp saw a range of health and fitness activities taking place including Rugby League, Dodgeball, Boxing, Multi-Skills and Circus Skills.

"We had almost 80 individuals attend across the four weeks, with an average of around 20 kids attending each day" explained Andrea Dobson, Eagles Foundation Development Officer. "It was great to see the young people taking part in new activities and enjoying themselves and doing something productive with their summer holidays! We'll be reviewing over the next couple of weeks and identifying what we can do in the future to continue to make a positive difference."

Heritage Project

We are also working to develop a funding application to the National Lottery Heritage Fund. If the funding bid is successful a project officer would be employed by the project to coordinate all the activities which will include researching archives to centrally gather information about the club, digitising key documents and items from the club's past such as photographs, programmes, season tickets, videos and building an online database and museum to be made available to all and collecting and sharing stories from officials, players, supporters and coaches from throughout the life of the club, ensuring their stories are preserved for generations to come.

FOUNDATION

To help shape and strengthen the bid, as well as showing the National Lottery Heritage Fund the support for the project we'd like your help. Everyone can help develop and support the project in a number of ways:

- Online Survey: Complete a short online questionnaire that will help us understand more about the people that could get involved and also give you a chance to share some of your ideas about the project. The questionnaire closes at 9am on Monday 27th September. The questionnaire can be found at <https://bit.ly/EaglesHeritage>
- Email: Email us with your thoughts or ideas about the project, anything we've missed, any questions you have, whether it's something you'd like to get involved in or just to say you support the project. You can email to enquiries@eaglesfoundation.co.uk
- Discussions: Have a further discussion with representatives of the Eagles Foundation about the project, or if you have problems submitting an online questionnaire just email on enquiries@eaglesfoundation.co.uk

MEDICAL

MICK HEYS

Well, it's been a long hard season for everyone at Sheffield Eagles and still a couple of games to go.

The club has done exceptionally well to get the season started and on to a finish within the current circumstances. Complying with the RFL protocols and government regulations during the Covid pandemic to allow pre-season training and then games played required a great effort from many people.

During the season we had a couple of periods when the virus hit hard and we had to cancel a couple of games despite taking all precautions and following the regulations and advice from the RFL. We were not the only club that this happened to, games have been cancelled in Super League and League one as well as the Championship. Thankfully the players and staff that tested positive for Covid were not badly affected and recovered quickly. Some players have missed a couple of games due to the timing of their positive test and the return to training / return to play protocols we follow to try and ensure they do not develop long term consequences. The players that stepped in to cover and play in unfamiliar roles did well and showed their commitment to the group.

We've also had a few mid to long term injuries which has stretched the squad somewhat.

Joel Farrell, Brad Knowles, Frank Mariano have missed large chunks of the season, Connor Bower missed the start due to injury in pre-season, Matt James and Anthony Thackeray have been missed for periods towards the end of the season. There's a lot of experience in those players that has been missed on the field during tough times but that is the nature of the game. After 12 months not playing and an unusual pre-season players ill have lost much of their resilience developed during many years of playing consequently we expected a number of injuries would occur due to this and put in certain measures to try and mitigate the increased risk.

It looks as if finally the stadium at OLP is taking shape, after the last few years I was beginning to think it would never be built and Sheffield Eagles would be forever without a true home. If all goes to plan we will have physical base in Sheffield that will make our job keeping the players fit and on the field much easier, although I will miss Bri fretting about transporting equipment around South & West Yorkshire! It was fantastic getting supporters back into the games a few weeks ago, lets try and finish the season as we started it and you can enjoy a couple of good wins

A TALKING BEAN

DAN FOWLER TALKS WITH BLAKE BROADBENT

DF: Blake, we come into this game against Dewsbury after two heavy defeats. It's fair to say the lads will be going out there looking to prove a point?

BB: We have been on the receiving end of a few tough lessons the last couple of weeks so we'll be going out there against Dewsbury looking to put some wrongs right.

We need to put a smile back on everyone's faces because it's been a tough month for everyone so it'll be good to get out there and get going with a win.

DF: It's been a difficult time for all at the club with injuries and COVID also playing its part. How has it been for yourself and what has the atmosphere been like around the camp?

BB: Overall, the year has been tough. It was stop-start at the beginning and then we've picked up a number of injuries throughout the year.

As a squad, we've been battling all year. It's been one of those seasons but we're all in the same boat, we've got to try and work through it.

From a personal point of view, it's been challenging for me with a couple of injuries and then a broken jaw against Toulouse. It's good to get a few games under my belt now and be out there with the boys.

DF: There hasn't been any excuses made from Tubbs in recent weeks. How important is it to turn the fortunes around before the end of the season, for a bit of pride but also momentum for next year with the new ground around the corner?

BB: We need to end this season on a high so we can shut this chapter down and look forward to the new chapter that will be starting for the club.

"We don't want to be leaving anything out on the field as it's a long pre-season when you've not put your best foot forward in the closing stages of the year."

We don't want to be leaving anything out on the field as it's a long pre-season when you've not put your best foot forward in the closing stages of the year. You want to put everything right but when you've got to wait eight months to do so, it's not the best.

DF: We take on Dewsbury today. What are you expecting from them?

BB: They're a tough side with a big strong pack. They're always well drilled and hard to work over, evidently when we drew against them earlier on in the season. It will be nice to get two points against them.

DF: Our last game against the Rams was a close-run thing, ending in a draw. We had a poor first half in that game, a quick start here will be important won't it?

BB: It definitely will. If we can come out of the blocks strong and put our best foot forward, we'll be able to get going and hopefully have enough to get the win.

Dewsbury Rams come into today's Round 20 Betfred Championship game aiming to respond to back-to-back league defeats, similarly to the Eagles.

The Rams sit one place above the final relegation place, currently occupied by Oldham.

Dewsbury enjoyed a good start to the season, winning their first two matches but since then the Rams have struggled for consistency and have only one win in their last eight games.

Dewsbury suffered a heavy defeat away at Featherstone before last weekend's home defeat to Newcastle Thunder.

Matty Fleming scored Dewsbury's only score of the first half with a sublime 100-metre effort.

Despite a stunning start, it was Newcastle who dominated the half as they scored 21 unanswered points.

Callum Turner levelled it up before Jack Johnson added a double.

Jake Shorrocks' try was converted by Josh Woods before the former Leigh man added a drop-goal.

Johnson completed his hat-trick immediately after the interval before Dewsbury's Jon Magrin crashed over.

Josh Woods and Connor Bailey extended Thunder's advantage before Paul Sykes and Tom Garratt added late consolation before Matt Wright sealed Newcastle's win.

Dewsbury Head Coach finished 12th in his first season as Rams' boss in 2019, avoiding relegation in the process.

The inconsistent Rams are still yet to secure their Championship safety and will look to take a huge step in that direction on Sunday afternoon.

THREE TO WATCH

LEWIS COLEMAN

Matty Fleming

Centre Matty Fleming has been a stand-out for the Rams this season.

The former St Helens and London Broncos man notched Dewsbury's first try in last weekend's defeat to Newcastle Thunder.

Speedster, Fleming, will be looking to finish his season with a flurry and help the Rams to Championship safety.

Riley Dean

Highly-rated half-back Riley Dean joined Dewsbury on loan from Super League side Warrington Wolves.

The 20-year-old had a successful loan spell in the first half of the season at York City Knights before his move to the Tetley's Stadium.

Dean will be aiming to end his season in style with the Rams and is likely to be partnered by the hugely experienced Paul Sykes.

Tom Garratt

Towering forward Tom Garratt is our final one to watch this afternoon.

The free-scoring forward is Super League-bound in 2022 after agreeing to join Hull KR next term.

The 26-year-old has been a bright spark in a dismal season and will look to cause issues for the Sheffield forward pack on Sunday afternoon.

We all feel angry sometimes. I think these last 18 months and the pressures of the pandemic have caused a lot of anger to be flushed to the surface of people's lives.

It has definitely been manifesting on the roads; it seems nearly everyone is more aggressive in their driving and less courteous to one another. "A quick temper will make a fool of you soon enough" Bruce Lee

Anger is an ok feeling but it's what we do with our anger that counts. We have all witnessed a player on the Rugby field get angry and how that anger, when channeled well, can help him keep focused and play well; or that anger causes him to lose his head and try to knock an opponent's off!!

An old Chinese Proverb says: "If you are patient in one moment of anger, you will escape a hundred days of sorrow" or maybe a three match ban!!

If we become angry and manage to control those feelings we can learn so much about ourselves; controlling the anger rather than the anger controlling us which can harm us as well as others who receive our verbal outbursts.

"Anger is one letter short of danger" Eleanor Roosevelt

I remember as a young boy seeing, hearing and being on the receiving end of aggressive verbal or physical outbursts from one of my parents. It caused me a lot of upset, fear and hurt. I had no idea why I and my brother were regularly on the receiving end of a barrage of anger from an adult whose role was to nurture, love and encourage us. Dealing with my anger helped me and still helps me when I know I am becoming angry again which is usually down to hurt.

CHAPLAINCY

"Where there is anger, there is always pain underneath." Eckhart Tolle

If we are not careful, anger can hinder other emotions. It can also make us turn in on ourselves with self-hatred and self-cursing. We need to recognize our anger for what it is and why it is there and not be afraid to embrace it and seek help where required.

Just as anger can affect a player's performance, anger can affect a person's behavior, lifestyle, relationships and future. Remember, "If you are patient in one moment of anger, you will escape a hundred days of sorrow".

Enjoy the game

WORRINCY TO RETIRE

things have turned out, finding myself back at the Eagles, it feels like a fitting time to call it the end.

"From starting out playing as a 14-year-old lad in London, in a football-dominating area, there were never any aspirations to make it as a pro.

"I'm really, really lucky in terms of the opportunities I've had and there has been hard work, determination and setbacks in there too.

"Ultimately, it has been a pleasure to have made the memories and meet the people I have along the way."

Worrincy was one of the quickest men in the sport for a good number of years, with interception tries and 100m efforts becoming a trademark. Of the aforementioned three big victories in his career, Worrincy scored a length of the field try in the 2006 National League 2 Grand Final for the Eagles and in the 2010 Championship Grand Final for Halifax.

"Luckily, I have always had an abundance of pace so I managed to get myself in the right places at the right times," Worrincy commented on those long-range scores.

"Sometimes I didn't quite pull those efforts off but when I did, there were quite memorable.

"One of my first memories was that Grand Final try for the Eagles against Swinton Lions.

"From then on, it rolled on and became a thing that I tended to do from game to game!"

Rob Worrincy has announced he will be retiring from Rugby League at the end of the 2021 season.

After a glittering career with a number of clubs, spanning 18 years in all, Worrincy has decided to hang up the boots and focus on life away from the sport.

A well respected character within the game, Worrincy has won a League 1 (National League 2) Grand Final with the Eagles as well as a Northern Rail Cup and Championship Grand Final with Halifax.

Discussing his retirement, Worrincy said: "It was a really, really tough decision,"

"Playing any sport in general is enjoyable but doing it professionally is something to be truly grateful of.

"I've enjoyed my playing career and it's been in the back of my mind for the last couple of years that I'm coming to the backend of it.

"For one reason or another I've managed to talk myself out of it but now I think the time is right. With the way

After departing the Eagles for Halifax the first time around, Worrincy enjoyed a very successful stint in West Yorkshire where he became a prolific try-scorer in the second tier.

Asked if he thought those years were the winger in his prime, he added: "I found myself in a really good side!"

"I started to learn the game a bit more, coming in a bit later compared to others, and I enjoyed some of my more prolific years there.

"It was a credit to some of the players there and the opportunities I got from them.

"It was a good time in my career, being in Grand Finals and playing in big games."

A return to the Eagles for the 2015 season saw more success for Worrincy, as he played his part in a top four finish and Sheffield's venture into the Qualifiers.

"That was really special as we had a great set of boys, with that team belief and camaraderie which you can't buy," he said.

"It was classed as a new era for the sport and we wanted to be a part of it. The club helped me settle in and the lads took to me really quickly.

"Playing against Super League opposition is what you want to be doing and as a Championship player, you pit yourself against the best of that division but getting that chance to step up was amazing as well."

Since 2015, Worrincy has played for the Eagles in two separate stints as well as going back to Halifax and starring for Dewsbury Rams.

He looks back on the times he played for those clubs, for different coaches and fanbases, with fond memories: "For me, rugby league in terms of fanbases is a sport that is truly special,"

"I've felt a warmth from supporters at every club I've been at as they welcome you in and make you feel like one of their own.

"Teams like Halifax, where there is a larger base, you feel that sentiment and being in that community.

"But the smaller fanbases probably mean the most. You get people travelling longer distances in smaller numbers and take time out from their lives to support you and make you feel like you're doing a good job.

"Supporters at the likes of Dewsbury and Sheffield cannot be underestimated.

"Although they're not massive in numbers the impact they have is just as meaningful, if not more."

MATCH REPORT

EAGLES VS BRONCOS

Despite an improved first-half performance, Sheffield Eagles suffered a second successive league defeat on Sunday afternoon against London Broncos.

London opened the scoring at Trailfinders Sports Club shortly after an Eagles knock-on. Gideon Bofo finished a silky Broncos move to the right-wing where Chris Hankinson couldn't convert from the touchline.

The hosts came close to a second score minutes later when Rob Worrincy fumbled a high kick but luckily for Sheffield, Jacob Ogden knocked on close to the line.

It was the Eagles who added the next score on 20 minutes as Johnson was first to react to Harry Tyson-Wilson cute grubber kick.

Guzdek's successful conversion put Sheffield into a temporary lead.

London responded five minutes later with Bofo crossing for his second, this one gift wrapped by Sheffield.

Ryan Millar's pass to James Glover went to ground before the London winger walked in for his double. Hankinson was again unsuccessful with the attempted conversion.

London extended their lead with a third Bofo score after the half an hour mark.

In similar circumstances to his second try, Bofo reacted to an Eagles offload quickest before racing away to score.

It was Sheffield who had the final say of the first 40 minutes, which proved to be their last score of the day.

Tyson-Wilson grubbered through the Broncos defence for a second time and Blake Broadbent touched down. Guzdek's kick from in front meant the Eagles trailed narrowly at the break.

HALF-TIME: LONDON BRONCOS 14-12 SHEFFIELD EAGLES

Both sides were reduced to 12 men for ten minutes after the interval, as a scuffle broke out between London's Titus Gwaze and Joel Farrell. It was the Broncos who reacted positively to the extra space on the pitch.

Ogden scored two minutes after the sin-binnings before another ex-Eagle Fozard jumped over the whitewash.

With both tries converted by Hankinson, the Eagles needed the next score but it was the Broncos who added another through Josh Walters.

Set up by James Meadows, the former Featherstone man found the space in Sheffield's defence as London opened up an 18-point-lead with around 20 minutes remaining.

The full-time Londoners managed the contest well and provided a good defence to the Sheffield side who were held up twice in quick succession through Glover and Paddy Burns.

London added a further two tries in the remaining 10 minutes with expansive play as Sheffield appeared to tire.

Hankinson added a try before Super League-bound Abbas Miski capped off a miserable second-half Sheffield performance.

AUGUST MAN OF THE MATCH

We've added up all the votes cast during August and we can announce that the SESA Man of the Match for August is Harry Tyson-Wilson.

Harry received 28% of the votes cast, followed by Oliver Davies and Ryan Millar both with 14% each. Congratulations to Harry.

SESA MAN OF THE MATCH

The man of the match voting continues at every game (home or away) via the SESA website. You don't need to be a member of SESA to vote but we hope you sign up. Voting opens 20 minutes into the second half and closes about an hour & a half after the end of the game. You can vote here:

www.sesa.org.uk/vote

With just three games to go, all votes count, not just towards each game and the player of the month but also towards the player of the season. Voting is still close for that so your vote will make a difference.
